Parent-Child Dedication

Sunday, May 14, 2017

Pastor: Children are a blessing from the Lord. With this blessing comes a solemn responsibility to raise your children in the admonition of the Lord (Ephesians 6:4). These parents come today to dedicate themselves, their children, and their homes to the fulfillment of this responsibility.

God is the creator of all things, and out of His miraculous love and grace, He has entrusted these children to you as parents and to us as a church family as well.

I will now ask these parents and the members of this church to solemnly commit before the Lord to accept the holy responsibility God has given to each of us.

Charge to the Parents

Pastor: Do you covenant before God and this church family to provide a home where the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of these children are met?

Parents: We will.

Pastor: And will you also covenant to live Christian lives before these children, teaching them through word, as well as example, that they might grow in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man (Luke 2:52)?

Parents: We will.

Pastor: Will you covenant to make the Word of God a part of your lives and theirs so that at God's chosen time they will confess Christ as their personal Lord and Savior (Romans 10:17)?

Parents: We will.

Pastor: Will you covenant to make the church of our Lord Jesus Christ a vital part of the lives of these children, so that they may develop into spiritually mature Christians?

Parents: We will.

Charge to the Church

Pastor: Will everyone please stand? We, as a church, also have a responsibility both to these parents and to these children. It is our responsibility as Christians to live Godly lives before these children and as a church family to provide an atmosphere of love and learning where they can grow into faithful disciples.

Will each of you as members of this body covenant before the Lord and these parents to live Godly lives, that they might see Christ in us (Colossians 1:27)?

Church Family: We will.

Pastor: Will you covenant to continually provide a place for Bible study and worship where the truth of God's Word is always taught?

Church Family: We will.

Pastor: Let us now join in prayer, asking God to bless these families and to accept this covenant that we have made before Him and each other today.

Prayer of Commitment: Pastor

Pastor: This morning, as a church family, we have entered into a covenant with these parents. Together we have agreed to provide for these children a home, a church, and a living example which will one day point them to a knowledge of Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. It is a solemn promise we have made and should be taken very seriously. As we leave this service today, I pray that each of you as parents and as church members will seek to fulfill this covenant in your daily lives.
